20th March 2014

Dear Parents,

As you may be aware, teachers who are members of the NUT union are taking strike action next Wednesday 26th March 2014. This action is a response to the Government's education policies, and is not aimed at Parents, Management or the Local Authority.

However, teachers belonging to other teaching unions have not been balloted, and cannot legally strike.

Therefore all classes, except 2K, will be closed to children on that day.

After school Chinese Lion Dancing will still take place for any child in Y1 or Y2 who has a place allocated, and can be here for 3.00p.m. Those who cannot come because of the strike action will be refunded for one session.

The decision to close classes is never taken lightly, but in this instance, where staff have elected to take lawful industrial action, their classes cannot be covered.

We regret the difficulties this will cause parents, and thank-you for your understanding.

Yours sincerely

S J Saje
